

Held in Perfect Balance

Roy Torda

Oil paint on canvas
24 x 20 inches, 2022

Roy Torda is a young artist from the Appalachian Mountains of North Carolina. Their oil paintings explore themes of nature, folklore, and surrealism. "Held in Perfect Balance" depicts the cycle of life and death as delicate flowers consume a veil of man-made cloth, transforming it into something beautiful and new.